WHY BASEL?

swissôtel LE PLAZA
BASEL

WHY BASEL

- Basel's Congress Center is the largest and most important exhibition location in Switzerland

Basel For Leisure

- More than 40 museums like Tinguely Museum, Fondation Beyeler, Kunstmuseum Basel, Pharmaceutical Museum, Augusta Raurica
- Traditional Basler Fasnacht, also known as „die drey scheenschte Dääg“ (the three most beautiful days) one of Europe’s top local festivities
- Basel Tattoo, the annual military tattoo show with world class international military bands
- St. Jakobs–Park Arena, home of the FC Basel football team, with direct tram connection to the Swissôtel Basel (tram 14)
- The annual Swiss Indoors professional men’s tennis tournaments and the CSI Longines world class equestrian show jumping
- Innumerable outdoor cafes and bars along the beautiful Rhine as well as numerous spots for Rhine swimming on hot summer days
