

INK Hotel Amsterdam - MGallery

ONCE UPON A TIME...

Back in the early 1900's, the Nieuwezijds Voorburgwal was the news street of Amsterdam. Newspaper offices and printing houses dotted the map around here. It was a vibrant and bustling area where stories were being chased, written and printed.

In fact, INK Hotel Amsterdam's building used to be the home of the Amsterdam newspaper De Tijd (The Times) right up until 1974.

Both offices and the printing house were located here. With a history like that, it's no surprise that we're all about time and telling stories. It's in our INK – DNA.

PRESSROOM AMSTERDAM

PRESSROOM is a restaurant with a story. Not just any story; the first page dates back to 1904 when our building became the base of Dutch newspaper 'De Tijd'. With a history like that, it's no surprise PRESSROOM is still a place "where stories are yet to be written". Today, this rich history is translated into an uncomplicated & relaxed dining experience with a modern & personal approach. PRESSROOM lives from early morning until late at night simply because: the story must go on. The menu consists of modern classics with pure and simple flavors that merge into great combinations on your plate. You see what you eat and you taste what you see. Located inside INK Hotel Amsterdam, a stone's throw from Dam Square, PRESSROOM is your hidden gem in the city center. Have a look at the PRESSROOM website via this Link.
